JKSSB Naib Tehsildar Eligibility Criteria 2024 - Age, Education

Furthermore, now that you're aware of all the JKSSB Naib Tehsildar Eligibility Criteria 2024, it's important to know the exam pattern for a better understanding. The JKSSB Naib Tehsildar Examination is primarily structured with five units, all of which are of objective type. The examination carries a total of 160 marks, which earlier was distributed as follows:

- Urdu (Descriptive Test): 30 marks
- General English: 20 marks
- General Studies: 40 marks
- Constitution of India: 20 marks
- Constitution of Jammu and Kashmir: 10 marks
- General Knowledge with special reference to Jammu and Kashmir: 25 marks
- Mensuration: 15 marks

The pattern of the exams this year will be a little different. Due to the removal of two of the above portions. The Jammu and Kashmir Constitution and Urdu will not be part of the JKSSB Naib Tehsildar recruiting procedure. Thus, the official JKSSB Naib Tehsildar announcement 2024 is awaited to bring more clarity on the division of marks.

JKSSB Naib Tehsildar Syllabus 2024

Now that you are well aware the exam pattern, and the changes that you can expect this year, let's decode another important aspect of the JKSSB Naib Tehsildar notification 2024, which is syllabus. As mentioned in the preceding segment, the JKSSB Naib Tehsildar Syllabus 2023 will now consist of five units:

- General English
- General Studies
- Constitution of India
- General Knowledge with special reference to Jammu and Kashmir
- Mensuration

Furthermore, it's crucial to revisit that in the past, the examination included two additional units:

- Urdu Descriptive Test
- Constitution of Jammu and Kashmir

Nevertheless, these two units have been excluded this year for the following reasons:

- The Urdu Descriptive test has been eliminated due to the parliamentary approval on September 23, 2020, to end the 131-year-old monopoly of Urdu as the official language of Jammu and Kashmir. Consequently, there may be candidates who are not proficient in the language.
- The Constitution of Jammu and Kashmir has been omitted because Jammu and Kashmir no longer hold the status of a state. It was reclassified as a Union Territory by India on October 31, 2019.
