- General English: 20 marks
- General Studies: 40 marks
- Constitution of India: 20 marks
- Constitution of Jammu and Kashmir: 10 marks
- General Knowledge with special reference to Jammu and Kashmir: 25 marks
- Mensuration: 15 marks

However, this year's exam pattern will be a little different. Since two of the above segments will be removed. - Mensuration

Furthermore, it's crucial to revisit that in the past, the examination included two additional units:

- Urdu Descriptive Test
- Constitution of Jammu and Kashmir

- The Urdu Descriptive test has been eliminated due to the parliamentary approval on September 23, 2020, to end the 131-year-old monopoly of Urdu as the official language of Jammu and Kashmir. Consequently, there may be candidates who are not proficient in the language.
- The Constitution of Jammu and Kashmir has been omitted because Jammu and Kashmir no longer hold the status of a state. It was reclassified as a Union Territory by India on October 31, 2019.
