Changes in JKSSB Patwari Syllabus 2024

The JKSSB Patwari syllabus 2024 has undergone some revisions, which are detailed in the points below:

"Knowledge is of no value unless you put it into practice"

- There is now one more topic in the section on general English.
- The General Knowledge and Current Affairs area has several freshly added topics and a few eliminated sections.
- The J&K General Knowledge Section syllabus is reduced from 10 to 8 topics. As a result, changes to the JKSSB Graduate level test syllabus have not affected more than 20% of the syllabus.
- Six topics have been implemented or carried out.
- The Indian Constitution is used as the topic instead of the Jammu and Kashmir Constitution.

In the upcoming section, we will be discussing the JKSSB Patwari Exam Pattern 2024 so that you can get to know the question paper format and the difficulty level. The JKSSB Patwari Exam Pattern 2024 is also there in the JKSSB Patwari Syllabus 2024. To learn more about the exam-related updates, visit our website.

JKSSB Patwari Exam Pattern 2024

Embarking on the recruitment exam journey necessitates a comprehensive exploration of the information provided in the table. The patterns within this table will intricately craft the question paper presented to aspirants like you. The table, curated from previous year question papers, serves as a valuable reference. However, before delving into the details, it's crucial to note that the selection process is divided into two parts.

Part 1 comprises Objective Type questions, and the specifics are outlined in the table below:

Subjects	Maximum Questions	Maximum Marks
General Knowledge & Current Affairs	30 Questions	30 Marks
General Knowledge with special reference to J&K UT	20 Questions	20 Marks
English	30 Questions	30 Marks
Knowledge of Computers	15 Questions	15 Marks
Mental Ability & Reasoning	15 Questions	15 Marks
Total	100 Questions	100 Marks

In the written examination, candidates such as yourself will navigate through a landscape of multiple-choice questions, comforted by the knowledge that no penalties loom for incorrect answers.

Moving on to Part 2 of the examination, the focus shifts to evaluating candidates' practical Urdu proficiency, contingent upon their success in Part 1 of the selection process. This assessment manifests as both a Reading and a Writing test, collectively carrying 50 marks and spanning a 60-minute duration, both conveniently scheduled on the same day.

- Urdu Language Reading Section: 20 Marks
- Urdu Language Written Section: 30 Marks

It's essential to note that the details provided are based on the current information available, and any potential alterations to the exam pattern will only be clarified upon the official release of the JKSSB Patwari notification for the year 2024.

The following subjects will be assigned to the applicants for the written section:

Topics	Maximum Marks
One letter writing of a minimum of 100 words on the topic provided	10
One Essay Passage of a minimum of 100 words has to be translated into Urdu or vice versa.	10
One Essay of a minimum of 100 words on the topic provided on social relevance	10
Total	30
